

DIBELS® Oral Reading Fluency

Short Form Directions

Make sure you have reviewed the long form of the directions in the DIBELS Administration and Scoring Guide and have them available.

Say these specific directions to the student:

Please read this (point) out loud. If you get stuck, I will tell you the word so you can keep reading. When I say "Stop," I may ask you to tell me about what you read, so do your best reading. Start here (point to the first word of the passage). Begin.

Start your stopwatch when the student says the first word of the passage.

At the end of 1 minute, place a bracket (]) after the last word provided by the student, stop and reset the stopwatch, and say, "Stop." (remove the passage)

I'm Proud to Be an American

My country is the United States of America. The United States is made up of fifty different states. The states are like smaller countries within a great big nation. Some states are very small, like Rhode Island. Some are very large, like Alaska. The United States has deserts, mountains, rivers, plains, forests, and oceans. It has cities with skyscrapers and villages without any stoplights.

All of us in the United States are Americans, no matter where we live. We just don't all look the same. Americans come in every color and race. English is our official language but many of us speak different languages. Some people even speak sign language. We have many different customs and traditions. Sometimes we celebrate different holidays.

Some Americans have ancestors who have lived here for thousands of years, like the Native Americans. Some Americans have ancestors who came here on ships from other lands looking for new homes, and a place to be free. Some Americans were born in other countries and arrived just a few months ago.

Our country is so big I'll probably never get to visit it all. So far I've been to six different states. On our next family trip I hope to visit two more states. Even though every state was different, all of the people we met were proud of their homes and their heritage. I'm proud that I'm an American.
